

Andrew D. Gray

---

Practice Description

Mr. Gray is a native of east Texas, having graduated from the SMU Dedman School of Law. While in law school, Mr. Gray received numerous advocacy awards, including the Fred C. Moss Outstanding Graduating Advocate award and being inducted into the Order of Barristers.

Mr. Gray's practice involves representation of business clients in complex civil litigation, including commercial disputes, transportation and logistics matters, product liability issues, and personal injury claims.

Affiliations and Memberships

Dallas Bar Association

Dallas Young Lawyers Association

SMU Dedman School of Law Board of Advocates, Assistant Mock Trial Coach

Practice Areas:

Commercial Litigation
Personal Injury Defense
Product Liability/Toxic Torts
Transportation & Logistics

Education:

Southern Methodist University
Dedman School of Law, J.D. 2020, cum laude

Midwestern State University,
B.B.A. 2017, cum laude

Admitted to Practice:

State Bar of Texas

Northern District of Texas