

Alexandria Epps

Practice Description

Alexandria is a seasoned legal professional with extensive experience in litigating complex consumer finance matters in federal court, specializing in Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), and privacy law cases. With a proven track record in both private practice and in-house counsel roles, Alexandria has consistently delivered effective legal strategies to mitigate risk and ensure regulatory compliance.

As an in-house counsel, Alexandria has expertly managed high-stakes regulatory compliance matters, data privacy issues, and contract negotiations, demonstrating an acute understanding of the ever-evolving legal landscape. Known for a results-driven approach, Alexandria is recognized for providing practical and sound legal counsel that aligns with business goals while safeguarding against legal and financial exposure. Whether advocating for clients in the courtroom or advising corporate leaders on compliance and risk management, Alexandria is committed to delivering high-quality legal representation and fostering long-term success in consumer finance and privacy law.

Practice Areas:

Consumer Financial Litigation & Compliance

Education:

Barry University Dwayne O. Andreas School of Law, J.D., 2017

University of North Texas, B.A, 2009

Admitted to Practice:

Florida

The United States District Court of Colorado

Middle District of Florida

Northern District of Florida

Southern District of Florida

Awards & Honors

National Black Lawyers 40 under 40

Affiliations and Memberships

Dallas Women's Lawyers Association

Women's Mentoring Circles – Committee Chair