

Allison Taff

Practice Description

At the most stressful time in one's life, Ms. Taff ensures each client receives the personal attention they deserve. Ms. Taff listens to her client's goals and fights for their desired results. Prior to practicing family law, Ms. Taff litigated wrongful death and personal injury cases against multi-million-dollar trucking companies and their insurers. Ms. Taff uses her litigation experience to passionately advocate for her clients in her family law practice. Ms. Taff's practice focuses on divorce matters, property division, child custody, family violence, child neglect and abuse, termination of parental rights, adoption, child support, possession and access, enforcement of court orders, modification of court orders, and appeals. Ms. Taff graduated cum laude from Baylor Law School and admitted to practice law in the State of Texas.
