Practice Description

Gabrielle Harper is an associate attorney whose practice is devoted to family law matters. Gabrielle brings thoughtful preparation and a steady, client-focused approach to each case she handles. She understands that family law matters are deeply personal, and she is committed to helping clients navigate difficult transitions with clarity and professionalism.

Gabrielle represents clients in divorce, child custody and conservatorship disputes, child support matters, modifications, enforcement actions, prenups, postnups, and child adoptions.

During law school, she distinguished herself through academic excellence and advocacy, earning CALI Awards in Professional Responsibility and Evidence and finishing as a Top 4 finalist in the Judges Gavel competition. She also served on the Board of Advocates and was actively involved in leadership and community-focused organizations.

Her legal training includes service as a judicial intern for the 301st District Court, where she observed family law proceedings involving divorce, paternity, and protective orders. She also gained litigation experience through prior clerkships, developing skills in motion drafting, legal analysis, and case preparation.

Outside of her practice, Gabrielle enjoys traveling, hiking, and swimming.
