

Jake W. Burton

Practice Description

Mr. Burton is a native of central Texas who left the hill country to attend Texas Tech University followed by the SMU Dedman School of Law. During law school Mr. Burton externed with Hunt Oil Company's legal team, worked as a law clerk with QSLWM, served on the executive board of the Corporate Law Association, and interned with Judge Charles A. Stephens II in Comal County.

Mr. Burton's practice involves representing clients in a variety of litigation matters including commercial and civil defense litigation, consumer financial litigation, premises liability and non-subscriber defense, creditors' rights, real estate litigation, and business litigation.

Practice Areas:

- Business Litigation
- Consumer Financial Litigation & Compliance
- Creditors' Rights
- Premises Liability/Nonsubscriber Defense
- Financial Institutions
- Real Estate
- Consumer Financial Litigation & Compliance
- Creditors' Rights
- Premises Liability / Nonsubscriber Defense

Education:

- SMU Dedman School of Law, J.D. 2021, Cum Laude
- Texas Tech University, B.S. in Agricultural and Applied Economics, 2018, Magna Cum Laude

Admitted to Practice:

- State Bar of Texas, 2021

Publications, Seminars, and Cases

Preventing a Bone-Dry Future: Texas's Need for a Statewide Groundwater Conservation Authority, Energy Law Advisor, May 2021

Focus of Practice

- Business Litigation
- Consumer Financial Litigation & Compliance
- Creditors' Rights
- Premises Liability/Nonsubscriber Defense
- Financial Institutions
- Real Estate