

LynAlise K. Tannery

Practice Description

LynAlise is a litigator focusing on consumer financial litigation in both state and federal court. She has a strong background representing financial institutions in bankruptcy matters. LynAlise currently represents financial institutions in bankruptcy and creditors' rights. She also represents a national credit reporting agency in litigation brought under the Fair Credit Reporting Act. Additionally, LynAlise is an Adjunct Professor for the Paralegal Studies Department at Collin College where she teaches Bankruptcy Law.

Affiliations and Memberships

Dallas Bar Association

Dallas Association of Young Lawyers

Kappa Alpha Theta - Plano Alumnae Chapter

E-mail: ltannery@qslwm.com

Phone: (214) 560-5457

Practice Areas:

- Bankruptcy
- Consumer Financial Litigation & Compliance
- Creditors' Rights
- Financial Litigation

Education:

Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law (J.D., May 2012)

University of Oklahoma (B.A. with honors, May 2008)

Admitted to Practice:

State Bar of Texas

U.S. District Courts for the Eastern, Northern, Southern & Western Districts of Texas