

Phone: 317-497-5600

Practice Areas:

Business Litigation
Commercial Litigation
Consumer Financial Litigation &
Compliance

Education:

Indiana University, B.S.
Walden University, Masters
Indiana University – Robert H.
McKinney School of Law, Juris Doctor

Admitted to Practice:

Indiana Supreme Court
United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana

Nermy Winner

Practice Description

Nermy is an associate in QSLWM's Indianapolis office focusing her practice on complex civil litigation. Nermy's prior experience includes energy and utility law and general corporate law. Nermy's diverse experience uniquely positions her to meet the needs of clients efficiently and effectively.

Nermy has honed her critical thinking and legal writing skills through multiple legal internships, including interning for the Hon. Melissa S. May, Indiana Court of Appeals, and the Hon. Heather A. Welch, Indiana Commercial Court.

Nermy earned her J.D. and two Graduate Certificates in Corporate and Commercial Law, and Advocacy Skills from the Indiana University – Robert H. McKinney School of Law. During law school, Nermy was the Editor-in-Chief of the Indiana Health Law Review, the Assistant Chief Justice of Problem Writing and CLE on the Moot Court Executive Board, a Certified Legal Intern for the Health and Human Rights Clinic, and a student coach for the National Moot Court Competition.

Publications, Seminars, and Cases

The Splintered Mind and Path to a Healing Society, Indiana Health Law Review, Vol. 20 Issue 1, 2023

Affiliations and Memberships

Indiana State Bar Association