Practice Description

Priscilla's practice centers on insurance coverage advice and litigation, business litigation, and the defense of personal injury and other tort claims, including premises liability, product liability, and general negligence matters. She represents clients in complex disputes and works closely with insurers and businesses to evaluate risk, develop litigation strategy, and resolve claims efficiently.

She earned her Juris Doctor from Oklahoma City University School of Law, where she distinguished herself academically and through leadership. During law school, she received multiple academic honors, including CALI Awards in Corporations and Advanced Torts, and was named to the Dean's List. She also received the Excellence in Corporation Law Award from the Oklahoma Bar Association's Business & Corporate Law Section.
